

VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

POSITION: RESEARCH INTERN

POSITION INFO: FALL 2010, Part-time

DUTY LOCATION: Washington, DC

CITIZENSHIP
REQUIREMENT: Must be U.S. citizen

CONTACT: Katherine Koleski
Email: kkoleski@uscc.gov / Phone: (202) 624-1493

ABOUT THE COMMISSION: The Commission conducts its work and studies in the following areas: China's military buildup, proliferation practices, regional economic and security impacts, energy activities, activities in U.S. capital markets, and World Trade Organization compliance; U.S.-China bilateral programs; economic transfers between China and the United States; and the implication of restrictions on speech and access to information in China. Its mission is to make recommendations to Congress concerning matters of concern in these areas.

DESCRIPTION: The Commission is seeking undergraduate-level interns to assist the analytical staff with research, analysis, editing, and other tasks. Research interns will play a key role in the preparations for public hearings and meetings, and in preparing materials for those meetings. Interns also support the Commission's analytical staff by attending meetings, drafting memos, and responding to research requests.

Candidates should be college juniors or seniors in good standing or recent graduates, and must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents (holding a valid Green Card) with legal authorization to live and work in the United States. Candidates should have an interest in U.S.-China relations, strong research and writing skills, proficiency in word processing, and the ability to work as a team player. Mandarin Chinese language skills are strongly preferred but not required.

Research interns will be expected to work full-time during the summer, or part-time during an academic semester. Interns not receiving academic credit for their work may qualify for a stipend.

HOW TO APPLY: Please visit www.uscc.gov and complete the application form for Research Intern and submit to Katherine Koleski at kkoleski@uscc.gov.
